

AWARDS & ACHIEVEMENTS

Richard Pan, an associate clinical professor of pediatrics at the UC Davis School of Medicine, received the 2010 Physician Humanitarian Award from the Medical Board of California, the state government agency that licenses and regulates physicians. The award will be presented in July at the quarterly meeting of the Medical Board. Visit ucdmc.ucdavis.edu.

My New Red Shoes, which helps underserved homeless youth succeed in school, received a $15,000 grant, and Project Night Night, which creates care packages for homeless children, received $5,000 from the The W.H.O. (Women Helping Others) Foundation. Beauticontrol consultants from the Sacramento region joined in recognizing and celebrating these local organizations with a kickoff meeting last month. The W.H.O. Foundation is committed to encouraging women everywhere to help others through community service and supporting organizations dedicated to the needs of women, children and families in crisis. Visit mynewredshoes.org, projectnightnight.org and beauticontrol.com.

Griselda Barajas, owner of Griselda's Catering in Sacramento, was presented with the Farmers' Extraordinary Entrepreneur Award from Farmers Insurance. The award honors successful business professionals in a variety of fields. Barajas' selection was based on the success of her catering and restaurant businesses in Sacramento and her community involvement.

Financial services firm Edward Jones ranked No. 2 on FORTUNE magazine's 100 Best Companies to Work for 2010, and Umpqua Bank, a subsidiary of Umpqua Holdings Corp., ranked No. 23. To pick the 100 Best Companies to Work For, FORTUNE partners with the Great Place to Work Institute, a global research and consulting firm, to conduct employee surveys. A full list and related stories appears in the Feb. 8 issue of FORTUNE. Edward Jones, based in St. Louis, and Umpqua, based in Portland, Ore., have offices in the Sacramento area.
